Language : Film is considered to have its own language. James Monaco wrote a classic text on film theory, titled How to Read a Film, that addresses this. Director Ingmar Bergman famously said, Andrei Tarkovsky for me is the greatest director, the one who invented a new language, true to the nature of film, as it captures life as a reflection, life as a dream. An example of the language is a sequence of back and forth images of one speaking actors left profile, followed by another speaking actors right profile, then a repetition of this, which is a language understood by the audience to indicate a conversation. This describes another theory of film, the 180-degree rule, as a visual story-telling device with an ability to place a viewer in a context of being psychologically present through the use of visual composition and editing. The Hollywood style includes this narrative theory, due to the overwhelming practice of the rule by movie studios based in Hollywood, California, during films classical era. Another example of cinematic language is having a shot that zooms in on the forehead of an actor with an expression of silent reflection that cuts to a shot of a younger actor who vaguely resembles the first actor, indicating that the first person is remembering a past self, an edit of compositions that causes a time transition.

The opening March weekend saw a dramatically lower box office than the same weekend in 2019. The 2019 opening March weekend saw the release of Captain Marvel, which alone earned over US$3 million domestically that weekend, compared to the 2020 weekends biggest film, Onward, with around US$1.2 million.²¹²² The next weekend saw the lowest total US box office intake since the October 30–November 1, 1998 weekend, with lower percentage drops than the weekend after 911, at US$3 million.³ Onward itself saw the biggest weekend-to-weekend drop of any Pixar film, making $.5 million, though was still the weekends biggest film and the only one to make over million.³ On March 19, Walt Disney Studios and Universal Pictures announced that they would no longer report box office figures.²³ Comscore therefore announced the next day that it would indefinitely suspend its reporting of box office estimates and charts.²⁴ On March 26, 2020, after local transmission of the virus had dropped to 0% in China, movie theaters there began to re-open, with reports that 250–500 theaters were opening, but the next day authorities again closed all movie theaters in the country.²⁵²⁶

Theatrical releases : On January 22, 2020, the Chinese blockbuster Lost in Russia canceled its theatrical release and was sent to streaming platforms. It was made available to Watch for free, a move said to encourage people to Watch it and stay home. The next day, all theaters in China were closed. On January 31, Enter the Fat Dragon also premiered online.⁸⁰ Lost in Russia was streamed by 180 million accounts in the first three days after its release. China's highest-grossing film and the highest-grossing non-English film ever was 2017's Wolf Warrior 2, which had sold a total of over 160 million tickets worldwide.⁸¹ At the beginning of February, American films set to premiere in China over February and March were officially canceled.⁸⁰ Chinese media companies began making more films free online through January.⁸² Asian markets also saw Chinese and Hong Kong film distributors cancel exports over the Lunar New Year holiday, including for the films Vanguard, Detective Chinatown 3, The Rescue, and Legend of Deification. Taiwanese film Do You Love Me As I Love You had its Asian release moved to April.⁸³ Cinemas in Asian countries without public restrictions have been increasing hygiene measures, with the spokesperson for one chain saying that they added more hand sanitizer dispensers, performed temperature checks on staff and moviegoers, cleaned facilities more frequently, and displayed public health warnings on the movie screens.⁸³ The Lunar New Year holiday is a large market for film releases across Asia, but was stunted in 2020 as the outbreak began rapidly spreading over this period of time.⁸³
